

Architectural plan of a building's upper level. It features several rooms, including a large open area labeled "Proposte" and a smaller room labeled "Open". To the right, there are two large rectangular areas, possibly representing balconies or terraces. A table with columns for "N.°", "Descrizione", "M.²", "M.²", "M.²", and "M.²" is located in the top right corner.

Architectural plan of a building's lower level. It features a long, narrow central corridor or hallway. On either side of this corridor are several rooms, including what appear to be bedrooms or living areas. There are also several large rectangular areas, possibly representing balconies or terraces. A blue dashed line indicates a boundary or a specific area within the plan. The text "PARCHEGGI (Quota 0,00)" is written vertically along the right side of the plan.